County Line Bill Is Opposed in Saline

Engineers on Little Rock's water supply project were in general agreement on the desirability of the county line bill, as far as it affects the water supply project. This is not proof that the bill will pass, however, as it is the opinion of the profession that the bill will not pass.

The bill was introduced in the Senate by Senator C. O. Smitherman, who is the author of the bill. Senator Smitherman stated that the bill was introduced in order to prevent the County Line from interfering with the water supply project.

Boundary Line Controversy Cloude Issue

The county line bill is not a new issue in the state of Arkansas. It has been a matter of contention for many years, and has been the subject of many discussions in the legislature.

The bill was introduced in the House by Representative J. H. Cook, who is the author of the bill. Representative Cook stated that the bill was introduced in order to prevent the County Line from interfering with the water supply project.

The bill was opposed by Representative J. H. Williams, who is the author of the bill. Representative Williams stated that the bill was introduced in order to prevent the County Line from interfering with the water supply project.

Saline Aroused by Threatened Territory Loss

The bill was opposed by Representative J. H. Williams, who is the author of the bill. Representative Williams stated that the bill was introduced in order to prevent the County Line from interfering with the water supply project.

Suspect in Death of Woman at Hot Springs Released

Edward Krelling of near Mount Joy, who was employed as a construction worker at the Hot Springs, was released from the hospital where he was taken after being shot.

The bill was introduced in the House by Representative J. H. Cook, who is the author of the bill. Representative Cook stated that the bill was introduced in order to prevent the County Line from interfering with the water supply project.

The bill was opposed by Representative J. H. Williams, who is the author of the bill. Representative Williams stated that the bill was introduced in order to prevent the County Line from interfering with the water supply project.

PERRY COUNTY RALLIES BEHIND BOUNDARY BILL

The bill was introduced in the House by Representative J. H. Cook, who is the author of the bill. Representative Cook stated that the bill was introduced in order to prevent the County Line from interfering with the water supply project.

The bill was opposed by Representative J. H. Williams, who is the author of the bill. Representative Williams stated that the bill was introduced in order to prevent the County Line from interfering with the water supply project.

Speakers Speculative as To Possible Motives

The bill was introduced in the House by Representative J. H. Cook, who is the author of the bill. Representative Cook stated that the bill was introduced in order to prevent the County Line from interfering with the water supply project.

The bill was opposed by Representative J. H. Williams, who is the author of the bill. Representative Williams stated that the bill was introduced in order to prevent the County Line from interfering with the water supply project.

ALMOST IN ARKANSAS

The bill was introduced in the House by Representative J. H. Cook, who is the author of the bill. Representative Cook stated that the bill was introduced in order to prevent the County Line from interfering with the water supply project.

The bill was opposed by Representative J. H. Williams, who is the author of the bill. Representative Williams stated that the bill was introduced in order to prevent the County Line from interfering with the water supply project.