Large Quantity of Ocher Found in Baxter County

Mountain Home, Oct 26. — Sam Gregg, a farmer living seven miles east of here, recently discovered a large quantity of ocher on his land. This mineral goes in a big bed over a large portion of his place and an adjoining place. It is used in making paint and refining oil. He will try to find a market for it.